PROJECTS

Bufs Chicken — E-Commerce Food Web Application (buffschicken.com)

Vue.js, Nuxt.js, TypeScript, Node.js, Express, MongoDB, Docker, AWS EC2, GitHub Actions, Cloudflare

Designed and developed a responsive, production-ready e-commerce frontend for a startup food business using Vue.js and Nuxt.js, implementing key user flows such as menu browsing, cart and checkout, blog pages, and catering inquiries. Led UI/UX design to deliver intuitive, mobile-first, and consistent interfaces aligned with business goals and user needs.

SplitSmart — Group Expense Tracking Web Application

Vue.js, Node.js, Express, Tailwind CSS, MongoDB

A full-stack web app for shared expense tracking, allowing users to create groups, log expenses, and split costs automatically. Built a responsive Vue.js frontend with Tailwind CSS, focusing on intuitive dashboards that show spending, activity, and balances, with streamlined UI/UX flows for managing expenses

Ben Ibe — E-Commerce Flower Shop Platform

React, Node.js, Express.js, MongoDB (MERN Stack)

Designed a seamless flower e-commerce platform with browsing, ordering, and email OTP verification. Led user research, wireframing, UI/UX design, usability testing, and maintained the design system.

LEADERSHIP AND EXPERIENCE

President — Code Geeks, Holy Angel University

2025 - 2026

Led a developer-focused student organization, managing workshops, technical events, and initiatives while overseeing strategy, delegating tasks, representing the organization in engagements, and fostering a collaborative environment for web and professional development.

External Communications Officer — SoC Student Council

2024 - 2025

Oversaw marketing and branding efforts, managed partnerships and sponsorships, and coordinated promotional campaigns and digital content to strengthen the department's public presence.

Public Relations Officer — SHS Executive Committee

2022 - 2023

Managed digital communications, content production, and partnership campaigns to strengthen brand visibility, while leading marketing strategies for student events and coordinating internal and external communications.
